

Concern Sierra Leone 'Ebola Education' - Photographer Stephen Douglas (16 October 14)

Ebola and Lessons from HIV Response:

Delivering on all Sector Planned Program Results by Intensifying Prevention and Impact Mitigation Learning Event

April 23, 2015

2-4pm,

Centre for Global Health Rm. 304, 7-9 Leinster Street South, TCD, D2

"Education is the best vaccine to stop the spread of Ebola" (Breda Gahan)

Event chair Fiona Lankan (Centre for Global Health), featuring speakers:

Dualta Roughneen (Plan Ireland), on "Humanitarian roles critical to an effective Ebola/ infectious disease response"

Breda Gahan (Concern Worldwide), on "Intensifying Prevention and Impact Mitigation – Ebola and Lessons from HIV"

Rosemary Davis (Concern Sierra Leone), on "Field realities and first priorities in responding to Ebola and related HIV issues"

Tea and coffee to follow

RSVP: Liz Glacken, Trócaire, at eaglacken@gmail.com

Dóchas HIV and AIDS and Humanitarian Aid Working Groups with the Centre for Global Health,
Trinity College Dublin

